

*Act No. 31/79
15-9-1979 (Gregorian)*

EXPORT IMPORT ACT OF THE MALDIVES

1. Exporting items naturally formed and produced in the Maldives, importing items into the Maldives, re-exporting, selling of imported goods, and operation of such activity shall be carried out with the permission of the Ministry of Trade, Industries and Labour, and in accordance with regulation made by that Ministry. Permission shall not be necessary for bringing items up to the amount stipulated in sub-sections (c) and (d) of Section 5 of this Act.
2.
 - (a) Export duty shall not be levied on the export of items naturally formed and produced in the Maldives except ambergris.
 - (b) Export duty shall not be levied on items re-exported from the Maldives.
3. The export duty for ambergris shall be 50% of its F.O.B. Value.
4. No act shall be committed, whether by fraud or negligence, in the production of items exported from the Maldives or in the export of items, that may give a bad name for the Maldives, or that may have a deleterious effect on the businesses of the Maldives.
5. Import duty shall not be levied on the following items.
 - (a) Rice, sugar and flour.
 - (b) Holy Quran and parts thereof.
 - (c) Amount of duty exempted by the President from items brought by travellers.
 - (d) Amount of duty exempted by the President from items brought by private parties for minor use.
 - (e) Items imported into the Maldives for the business of re-export.
6. Except for the items stipulated in Section 5 of this Act, import duty shall be paid to the Government of the Maldives for items imported into the Maldives, as prescribed in the 97 chapters included in Section 7 of this Act. Goods for which advelorum duty has to be paid, for the payment of duty, the price of the goods shall be deemed the C.I.F. value in case of insured goods, and C. and F. value in case of uninsured goods.
7. As prescribed in Section 6 of this Act, goods for which import duty has to be paid and the type of goods have been divided into 97 chapters, and the amount of duty to be paid for goods included in each chapter are stipulated in the table below. The President shall have the discretion to further detail the name of the type of goods and the amount of import duty levied for the goods, as included in the table.

8. (a) The President shall have the discretion to waive payment of duty to the government for a maximum period of 10 years, for items imported to commence, undertake and operate activities that are beneficial to the economy of the Maldives.
- (b) The President shall have the discretion, in the case of a special circumstance, to waive payment of import duty, or part of it, for items imported for the general benefit of the public, or for the general benefit of the people on an island, of the Maldives.
- (c) Duty shall be exempted, in accordance with the international treaties approved by the Maldives, for items brought to and taken from the Maldives by parties who have been granted diplomatic immunity by the Government of the Maldives.

9. This Act shall not affect the Government of the Maldives from acting as determined in relation to a party for whom the Government of the Maldives has discretion to exempt duty as provided for in another Act.
10. This Act shall not affect the settlement of duty, with regard to items brought to and taken from the Maldives under a regional or international treaty, or a bi-lateral agreement between the Government of the Maldives and a government of a foreign country, in accordance with such treaty or agreement.
 - (a) The Government of the Maldives shall determine the price from which duty has to be paid for imported items with an unknown price, and items with prices below than the prices at which they are ordinarily imported, based on the prices of such items ordinarily imported into the Maldives during such period.
 - (b) The Government of the Maldives shall determine the price from which duty has to be paid for exported items with an unknown price, and items with prices below than the prices at which they are ordinarily exported, based on the prices of such items ordinarily exported from the Maldives during such period.
 - (c) If an owner of a good has a problem with the price determined by the Government of the Maldives in accordance with sub-sections (a) and (b) of this Section, the owner shall have the right to apply to the court for adjudication after payment of duty on that price. If it is proved to the court that the price submitted by the owner is valid, the Government of the Maldives shall pay back to the owner of the good the additional money that was paid for duty.
12. In situations where the Government of the Maldives has to determine the price from which duty shall be paid in accordance with Section 11 of this Act, if it is not proved that the party importing or exporting goods has been deliberately fraudulent, it shall not be deemed to be a contravention against this Act.
 - (a) It shall be an offence to secretly import into the Maldives an item not authorized to be imported into the Maldives; to secretly export from the Maldives an item not authorized to be exported from the Maldives; to secretly import items into, and export items from, the Maldives, for which duty shall be levied, in order to avoid payment of duty; and attempting to do any of these acts.
 - (b) It shall be deemed secretly importing goods into the Maldives if a good is unloaded to an area not designated by the Customs after it is brought to the Maldives, or if a good is taken outside the area designated by the Customs for imported goods, without notice to, or permission from, the Customs, or if goods are imported into the Maldives without payment of applicable duty.
 - (c) It shall be deemed secretly exporting goods from the Maldives if goods are exported from the Maldives without notice to, or permission from, the Customs, or if a good is exported from, or taken outside, the area designated by the Customs for goods to be exported, without notice to, or permission from, the Customs, or if goods are exported or taken out of the Maldives without payment of applicable duty.

14. (a) If an offence has been committed against sub-section (a) of Section 13 of this Act, or attempted, in addition to the imposition of penalty prescribed under this Act, the goods in question shall be confiscated without compensation. If any good or money have been obtained by secretly importing or exporting goods, in addition to the imposition of penalty prescribed under this Act, such good or money shall be confiscated.
- (b) The penalty for a person secretly importing goods into the Maldives or secretly exporting goods from the Maldives shall be imprisonment, or banishment, or house arrest for a period between 6 months and 2 years.
- (c) The penalty for a person attempting to secretly import goods into the Maldives or secretly export goods from the Maldives shall be imprisonment, or banishment, or house arrest for a period between 4 months and 1 1/2 years, or a fine between the amounts Rf. 10,000/- and Rf. 100,000/-.
- (d) If an offence against sub-section (a) of Section 13 of this Act is repeated, 1 year of imprisonment, or banishment, or house arrest shall be added to the penalty prescribed under this Act, for each instance of repetition.
- (e) If, by fraud, a low price is submitted when importing goods, the Government of the Maldives has the discretion to fine the perpetrator with an amount not exceeding twice the actual price of the goods in question for the first time, and, if the offence is committed more than once, in addition to fining the perpetrator with an amount not exceeding twice the actual price of the goods in question, to shut down imports by such party for a period not exceeding 2 years.
- (f) If, by fraud, a low price is submitted when exporting goods, the Government of the Maldives has the discretion to fine the perpetrator with an amount not exceeding twice the actual price of the goods in question for the first time, and, if the offence is committed more than once, in addition to fining the perpetrator with an amount not exceeding twice the actual price of the goods in question, to shut down exports by such party for a period not exceeding 2 years.
- (g) If a breach has been committed against a clause of this Act that does not prescribe a penalty, the perpetrator shall be fined with an amount not exceeding twice the actual price of the goods in question. If an attempt to commit such an act has been discovered, the perpetrator shall be fined with an amount not exceeding the actual price of the goods used or attempted to be used for the commission of the act.
- (h) If a person has a problem with a fine imposed under sub-section (e), (f) and (g) of this Section, the person shall have the right to apply to the court for adjudication after payment of the fine. If the court decides that the person did not contravene the law, the Government shall pay back the fine paid by the person.

15. In this Act:-

- (a) “Re-exporting” means lawfully taking out of the Maldives items lawfully imported into the Maldives, without changing the nature of the items.
- (b) “F.O.B. Value” means the price of the items, and the cost incurred up to loading the items to a vessel in a port or airport.
- (c) “C.I.F. Value” means the price of the items, and the value of the items including the insurance and freight charges.
- (d) “C. and F. Value” means the price of the items and the value of the items including freight charges.
- (e) “Advelorum Duty” means the percentage of the price of the good determined as the duty amount.
- (f) “Specific Duty” means the amount determined as duty based on the quantity, or weight, or the size of the good.
