 - (j) the giving of a performance bond by the right-holder to guarantee compliance with the conditions of the grant;
 - (k) such other matters as may be provided for by regulations made by the Minister or as are considered necessary by the Authority;
- (8) The Authority may impose conditions for any of the above purposes on land owned or occupied by the applicant which is not the subject of the application if in the opinion of the Authority it is necessary to do so for the better management of the wildlife use right; applied for.
- (9) A grant, grant with conditions or refusal of an application shall be made in writing in a specified form, signed by a designated officer and shall be sent to the applicant at a place or address specified by the applicant and no oral statement or other form of written communication which purports to be a grant, grant with conditions or refusal of an application from whomsoever it comes shall have any validity whatsoever.

34. (1) Where it appears to the Authority that a grant-holder is not complying with the terms of a grant of a wildlife use right; or any conditions subject to which the grant of a wildlife use right; has been made, the Authority may take one of the following actions:-

Compliance.

- (a) where there is an admission of non-compliance, to agree upon a programme and timetable to rectify the non-compliance;
 - (i) where there is an admission of non-compliance, to agree upon a programme and timetable to rectify the non-compliance
 - (ii) where there is no admission of non-compliance but the Authority is of the opinion that there has been non-compliance, the Authority may inform the right-holder that unless specified actions are taken in a specified time, the Authority will serve a compliance notice on the right-holder;
 - (iii) where the Authority and the right-holder agree that there has been compliance, the matter shall end there; or

- (b) issue a compliance notice and serve a copy on the right-holder and such other persons as are required to be served with a copy;
- (c) issue a stop notice and serve a copy on the right-holder and such other persons as are required to be served with a copy;
- (d) revoke the wildlife use right.

(2) The Authority may inspect or cause to be inspected any activity being undertaken with respect to a wildlife use right to determine whether that activity represents a non-compliance within the terms of the grant of that wildlife use right or the conditions subject to which it was granted and may take into account the evidence obtained from that inspection in any decision as to whether to take any of the actions specified in this section.

(3) It shall not be necessary for the Authority in exercising its powers under subsection (2) to give the right-holder or any person involved in the activity the subject of the inspection or any other person residing or working on the land or in the building where an inspection is taking place, an opportunity of being heard by or making representations to the person making the inspection.

35. (1) Where it appears to 88 that a grant-holder is not complying with the terms of a grant of a wildlife use right or any of the conditions subject to which the grant was made or has failed to comply with the agreement referred to in sub-paragraph (i) of paragraph (a) subsection (1) of section 34, 88 may issue a compliance notice and serve a copy on the right holder and on such other persons as 88 consider necessary to serve or as regulations made by the Minister specify shall be served.

(2) A compliance notice shall specify clearly and in a manner which may easily be understood:-

- (a) the wildlife use right to which it refers;
- (b) the action or non-action in relation to that wildlife use right which it is alleged constitutes non-compliance with the terms of the grant or with the conditions, subject to which the grant was made;
- (c) the person to whom it is addressed;
- (d) the action which must be taken to rectify the non-compliance and the time, being not less than thirty days or such further period as may be specified in the notice, within which the action must be taken;
- (e) the powers of the Authority to take such action as may be necessary, including entering on land and buildings and taking possession of specimens, books, papers and other possessions of the right-holder and all other persons involved in the exercise of the wildlife use right in order to prevent or bring to an end the continued non-compliance;

(f) the penalties which may be imposed and the forfeitures which may be claimed if the action specified in paragraph (d) is not undertaken;

(g) the right of the person served with a compliance notice to appeal against that notice.

(3) A compliance notice shall continue to apply to the activity in respect of which it has been served notwithstanding that it has been complied with.

(4) A person served with a compliance notice shall, subject to the provisions of this Statute, comply with all the terms and conditions of the notice that has been served on him.

36. (1) At any time within twenty-one days of the service of a compliance notice, a person on whom the notice has been served may, giving reasons in writing, request the Authority to reconsider that notice.

Reconsideration of compliance
notice

(2) Where a request has been made under sub-section (1), the Authority shall, within twenty-one days after receipt of that request, reconsider the notice and notify in writing the person who made the request of its decision on that notice.

(3) Where a written request has been made under sub-section (1), the compliance notice shall continue in effect until varied, suspended or withdrawn under subsection (4) and if varied, shall thereafter apply to the activity in respect of which it was served as so varied.

(4) The Authority may, after considering the compliance notice and the activity to which it refers, confirm, vary, suspend or withdraw that notice.

(5) The Authority shall give a person who has requested a reconsideration of a compliance notice the opportunity to be heard orally before a decision is made.

37. (1) Where a person on whom a compliance notice has been served fails, neglects or refuses to take the action required by the notice, the Authority may, with all necessary officers and other persons authorized by it, enter or authorize the entry by such officers and other persons on to any land under the control of the person on whom the compliance notice has been served and take all necessary action, whether of the kind specified in the compliance notice under paragraph (e) of subsection (2) of section 35 or otherwise in relation to the activity to which the compliance order relates so as to ensure

(2) Where the Authority has exercised the powers under subsection (1) it may recover as a civil debt in any court of competent jurisdiction from the person referred to in subsection (1) the expenses necessarily incurred by it in the exercise of that power.

Activity by the Authority on compliance notices.

38. (1) Where the Authority has served a compliance notice but considers it expedient to prevent the continuation of any activity to which that notice refers before the expiry of the period within which that notice must be complied with, it may, when serving a copy of the compliance notice, or afterwards, serve a stop notice prohibiting all or part of the activity referred to in the compliance notice.

Stop notices.

(2) A stop notice must refer to the compliance notice to which it relates and have a copy of that notice annexed to it.

(3) A stop notice must be served on every person on whom a compliance notice has been served and in addition, may be served on any other person who appears to the Authority to be involved in the activity to which the compliance notice relates.

(4) A stop notice shall not take effect until such date as may be specified in the notice, which shall be not earlier than two nor later than fourteen days after the date on which the notice was first served on any person.

(5) A stop notice shall cease to have effect in relation to the activities to which it refers where the compliance notice to which it refers is withdrawn, or quashed on appeal, or the compliance notice is varied so that the activities referred to in the stop notice cease to be activities to which the compliance notice refers, or the period allowed for compliance with the notice has expired.

(6) A stop notice may be withdrawn at any time in relation to any person by serving a notice to that effect on the person served with the stop notice.

(7) Any person who fails to comply with a stop notice or any part of the stop notice shall be guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to a fine of not less than one hundred and twenty thousand shillings nor more than twelve million shillings or both and in addition shall be liable to forfeit any specimens and up to three times the value of such specimens that the court is satisfied have obtained as a result of the activities prohibited in the compliance notice and stop notice.

39. (1) Where the Authority is satisfied, after making such investigations as it thinks fit, or after receiving such information and advice as appears to it to be well founded or as a result of a natural disaster or any other reason that appears to it to be relevant, that it is necessary to vary any grant of a wildlife use right or the conditions, subject to which a wildlife use right was granted, it may, subject to the provisions of this section, issue a notice of variation and serve a copy of that notice on every right-holder of a wildlife use right which is being varied.

(2) Where a right-holder has been served with a notice of variation for reasons which are applicable to that right-holder personally, he may request the Authority to reconsider the variation and on such a request being made to the Authority, section 36 shall apply to this reconsideration as they do to the re-consideration provided for by that section.

(3) Where one or more right-holders have been served with notices of variation for reasons which are applicable on a general basis, the Authority shall not consider any individual request from any right-holder for a re-consideration but shall, of its own motion reconsider the variation not less than once every six months and in so doing, may seek and take into account such information and advice as appears to it to be well founded to assist it to reach a satisfactory decision on the matter.

(4) Any right-holder who has been served with a notice of variation shall forthwith comply with that notice, notwithstanding that he has requested the Authority to reconsider that notice.

(5) For the avoidance of doubt, a variation of a wildlife use right may include a temporary suspension of any of the activities for which the wildlife use right has been granted.

40. (1) Where the Authority is satisfied after making such investigations as it thinks fit or after receiving such information and advice as appears to it to be well founded or as a result of a natural disaster or for any other reason that appears to it to be relevant, including in particular the non-compliance by a right-holder with the terms of the grant or with the conditions subject to which the grant of a wildlife use right was made, that it is expedient that a grant of a wildlife use right be revoked, it may, subject to the provisions of this section, issue a notice of revocation and serve a copy of the notice on every right-holder whose wildlife use right is being revoked.

Revocation of wildlife use right

(2) Where a right-holder has been served with a notice of revocation for reasons which are applicable to that right-holder personally, or where a right-holder can show clearly that he will suffer disproportionately more from a revocation made for general reasons that the generality of right-holder, he may request the Authority to reconsider that revocation and on such a request being made to the Authority, section 36 shall apply to this reconsideration as they do to a reconsideration provided for by that section.

(3) Where one or more right-holder have been served with a notice of revocation for reasons which are applicable on a general basis, the Authority shall not, subject to subsection (2), consider any individual request from a right-holder for a reconsideration, but shall, of its own motion, reconsider the revocation not less than once every six months and in so doing, may seek and take into account such information and advice as appears to it to be well founded to assist it to reach a satisfactory decision on the matter.

(4) Any right-holder who has been served with a notice of revocation shall immediately comply with that notice, notwithstanding that he has requested the Authority to reconsider that notice.

(5) Where a grant of a wildlife use right has been revoked for reasons other than that the right-holder has not complied with the terms of the grant or the conditions, subject to which the grant of wildlife use right has been made, the grant-holder whose wildlife use right has been revoked shall be entitled:-

(a) to a remission of the yearly fee paid, equal in proportion to that part of the year in respect of which the grant has been revoked;

(b) to claim compensation from the Authority in respect of such losses directly attributable to the revocation as may be provided for by this Statute or any regulations made by the Minister under this Statute.

41. (1) A right-holder may, by written communication addressed to the Authority, at any time surrender his wildlife use right to the Authority.

Surrender of wildlife use right

(2) The surrender of a wildlife use right shall not absolve the right-holder who has surrendered that right from any civil or criminal liabilities, or any liabilities, including liabilities arising from non-compliance with the terms of a grant or the conditions, subject to which a grant of a wildlife use right was made or incurred under this Statute, or any regulations made under this Statute, which have arisen before the surrender of the right or which, as a result of any actions taken by the right-holder while he was exercising his powers under the wildlife use right, may arise in the future.

Surrender of wildlife use right.

(3) A right-holder who has surrendered his wildlife use right shall not be entitled to any remission of fees paid in connection with that right, nor where he has surrendered that right after it has been revoked, shall he be entitled to claim compensation in respect of losses directly attributable to the revocation.

42. (1) Wildlife use rights shall be transferable as follows:-

Transferability of wildlife use rights

(a) a Class A and Class E wildlife use right shall be transferable only with the permission of the Authority;

(b) a Class B, Class C, Class D and Class F wildlife use right shall be transferable as private property rights subject to the provisions of this Statute;

(c) Other Classes of wildlife use rights created by regulations made by the Minister under this Statute shall be transferable to the extent and in accordance with procedures prescribed in those regulations.

(2) A transfer of a Class A and a Class E wildlife use right shall be termed a permitted transfer.

(3) A transfer of a Class B, C, D and F wildlife use right shall be termed a market transfer.

(4) The provision of subsection (2) of section 41 shall apply to the transferor of a transferred wildlife use right in the same manner and to the same extent as they apply to a right-holder who has surrendered his wildlife use right.

(5) A transferor of a wildlife use right shall be under a duty to ensure that his name and all relevant and prescribed details are deleted or removed from the certificate of transferred wildlife use right and until these matters have been completed, a transferor shall remain liable in respect of that wildlife use right under subsection (2) of section 41.

(6) A transferor of a wildlife use right shall be under a duty to ensure that his name and all relevant and prescribed details are entered on or attached to the certificate of the transferred wildlife use right and until these matters have been completed, a transferee shall have not legal authority to exercise any of the functions of that wildlife use right.

(7) The Minister may, by statutory instrument, on the advice of the Authority provide:-

(a) for wildlife use rights, the transfer of which are required by this section to be permitted transfers, to be reclassified as market transfers;

(b) for wildlife use rights, the transfer of which are required by this section to be market transfers to be reclassified as being required to be permitted transfers.

(8) A statutory instrument made under subsection (7) shall not be published unless the consent of Parliament, signified by its resolution, has been obtained.

43. (1) An application for a grant of a permitted transfer shall be made in the prescribed form and manner and shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee and shall contain such information as may be prescribed.

Permitted transfer

(2) An application for a grant of a permitted transfer shall be signed by the proposed transferee and the proposed transferor.

(3) Subsections (3) to (5) of section 32 and subsections (1) to (4) of section 33 shall apply to an application for and the consideration and determination of a grant of permitted transfer as they apply to the matters provided for by those subsections.

(4) The Authority may, in granting a permitted transfer, add to, vary, modify or delete any condition, subject to which the wildlife use right was first granted or, as the case may be, was transferred by a prior grant.

(5) When the Authority has granted a permitted transfer, it shall take all such steps as are necessary to assist the transferor and transferee to comply with their duties as set out in subsections (3) and (4) of section 40 as expeditiously as possible.

44. (1) A market transfer of a wildlife use right shall be undertaken and shall only be valid and lawful if it is undertaken using the prescribed forms, in the prescribed manner and paying the prescribed fee to the Authority.

Market transfer

(2) Prior to undertaking a market transfer, the proposed transferor and transferee shall inform the Authority of their intention to transfer a wildlife use right and may request the Authority to inform them as to whether it intends to object to the transfer and what, if any, additions, variations, modifications to or deletions from the existing grant or conditions, subject to which the existing grant of a wildlife use right is being exercised the Authority will be likely to make to the wildlife use right on its transfer.

(3) The Authority shall, within thirty days of the receipt of the information and request referred to in subsection (1) or such longer period as may be agreed upon between the Authority and the parties.

(4) Where the Authority informs the parties that it intends to object to the market transfer, the parties may, if they wish to constitute to undertake a transfer, submit an application for a permitted transfer to the Authority and the procedures in section 43 will thereafter apply to such an application.

(5) Where the Authority informs the parties that it proposes to make one or more variations modifications, additions to and deletions from the grant or conditions, subject to which the grant of the wildlife use right, which it is proposed to transfer, is at present exercised by the transferor, the parties may request the Authority to reconsider its proposals, and any such reconsideration shall follow, as near as may be, the provisions of subsections (2), (3) and (5) of section 36.

(6) Where, after a reconsideration requested under subsection (5), the parties are still dissatisfied with the proposals of the Authority, they may require that the matter be referred to arbitration and such arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration Act.

Cap.55

(7) A market transfer shall, within sixty days of the signing of any documents by the transferor and the transferee, the purpose of which is to transfer a wildlife use right from the transferor to the transferee, be registered by the Authority in a register, maintained specifically for this purpose by the Authority.

(8) Until a market transfer is registered in accordance with subsection (7), it shall have no legal or other validity and the rights and liabilities of the parties to the transfer in respect of the wildlife use right, the subject of the market transfer, shall remain unaltered by any document that the parties have signed and shall be governed by the provisions of subsection (5) and (6) of section 42.

(9) Where the parties to a market transfer have signed documents, the purpose of which is to transfer a wildlife use right from the transferor to the transferee, and within fourteen days of the signing of the documents, have submitted all necessary forms and fees to the Authority for the purpose of obtaining the registration of the transfer, the Authority shall take all such steps as are necessary and are required to enable the parties to register the transfer within the time required.

(10) Where, the parties to a market transfer have submitted all necessary forms and fees in accordance with the time frame set out in subsection (9) but, through the negligence or other fault of the Authority or any of its officers, the transfer is not registered within the required period and the parties or any of them suffer losses thereby, the Authority shall be liable for those losses as a result of the failure to register within the required period, and shall, accordingly, compensate the concerned parties.

45. (1) Every grant-holder shall be under a duty to manage the land and buildings in, on, under and over which a wildlife use right may, in accordance with the terms of a grant and the conditions, subject to which the right has been granted, be exercised so as to ensure that those terms and conditions are all times complied with.

Management of wildlife use right.

(2) Where a right-holder employs any person to carry out any of the functions which are permitted to be carried out under the grant of the wildlife use right or are necessary and desirable to carry out so as to ensure that the terms and conditions of the grant of that wildlife use right are complied with it shall be the responsibility of the right-holder to:-

- (a) ensure that all such persons are aware of the terms and conditions of the grant of the wildlife use right and of the relevant provisions of this Statute and of any regulations made under this Statute, and of their obligation to comply with them;
- (b) obtain all necessary permissions from all authorities and persons to enable all such persons as are referred to in this subsection to carry out their functions in accordance with their obligations as

PART XIV - MISCELLANEOUS.

90. (1) No action shall lie against the Authority for the recovery of any damage caused to any person or property by any animal in a national park or wildlife reserve.

Conventions and treaties on wildlife management.

(2) The Executive Director or any other officer shall not be held liable in damages or otherwise to any person by reason of his exercise or non-exercise in good faith and without negligence of the powers vested in him under this Statute.

91. (1) where Uganda is a party to any convention or treaty concerning wildlife, or in a case where such convention or treaty is required by the Constitution to be ratified, after it has been ratified in accordance with the Constitution, the Minister may, by statutory order, and with the approval of Parliament signified by its resolution:-

Conventions and treaties on wildlife management.

(a) set out the provisions of the convention or treaty;

(b) give the force of law in Uganda to the convention or treaty or any part of the convention or treaty required to be given the force of laws in Uganda;

(c) amend any enactment other than the Constitution for the purpose of giving effect to the convention or the treaty;

(d) make such other provisions as may be necessary for giving effect to the convention or treaty in Uganda or for enabling Uganda to perform its obligations or exercise its rights under the convention or treaty

(2) This section applies to any convention or treaty whether adopted before or after the coming into force of this Statute and whether Uganda became a party to it before, or becomes a party to it after the coming into force of this Statute.

(3) Without prejudice to the general effect of the foregoing provisions, a statutory order under this section may make provision for the imposition of penalties not exceeding such fine or imprisonment or both as may be prescribed by the Minister and may prescribe the payment of such fees or charges as the Minister thinks necessary in respect of any service or other things to be done or given under the Statutory order.

(4) the Provisions of any convention or treaty set out in any order made under this section shall be evidence of the contents of the convention or treaty in any proceedings or matter in which the provisions of the convention or treaty came into question.

92. (1) The Board may make regulations for carrying into effect the provisions of this Statute and, without prejudice to the generality of the power, such regulations:-

Regulations.

(a) provide for returns to be furnished to the Board or the Executive Director by holders of licenses, permits, certificates or wildlife use right holders of records issued or maintained under this Statute;

(b) prescribe forms to be used under this Statute;

(c) prescribe fines and fees payable under this Statute;

(d) provide for the remission in special cases of any fees payable under this Statute;

(e) provide for the furtherance of public knowledge concerning the management of wildlife by such means as may be considered appropriate; and

(f) prescribe anything required to be prescribed under this Statute.

(2) A regulation made under subsection (1) of this section shall be laid, by the Minister, before Parliament for Parliament's approval signified by its resolution.

PART XV - AMENDMENT, SAVING AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS.

93. (1) Subject to subsection (2), any area which was declared as a controlled hunting area under any law in force before the coming into force of this Statute shall remain as such and the provisions of any law in relation to such areas shall remain in force for those areas unless otherwise provided for under subsection (2).

Controlled hunting areas.

(2) The Minister shall, with the prior approval of Parliament signified by its resolution, by statutory instrument, within twenty four months of the coming into force of this Statute determine which controlled hunting areas under subsection (1) shall:-

(a) be declared as national parks, wildlife reserves, wildlife sanctuaries, community wildlife areas or any other area described in section 19; or

(b) cease to exist as a controlled hunting area.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, subsections (2) to (5) of section 18 shall not apply to any statutory instrument made under subsection (2).

94. (The following Acts are repealed.

Amendment, saving and transitional provisions.

(a) The Game (Preservation and Control) Act, except the Schedules to the Act;

(b) The National Parks Act.

Cap. 227.

(2) The Minister may, with prior approval of Parliament signified by its resolution, by statutory instrument, amend or revoke any of the Schedules to the Game (Preservation and Control) Act continued in force under paragraph (a) or subsection (1) of this section

Cap. 226.

(3) The Fish and Crocodiles Act is amended by deleting from all its provisions the reference to crocodiles and for the avoidance of doubt the management of crocodiles shall be under the provisions of this Statute.

Cap. 228.

(4) Notwithstanding the repeal under subsection (1), or the amendment under subsection (3), any statutory instrument made under the Acts repealed by subsection (1) or amended by subsection (3) and the Schedule to the Game (Preservation and Control) Act continued in force under paragraph (a) of subsection (1), in force immediately before the commencement of this Statute shall, continue in force until amended by a statutory instrument made under this Statute;

(5) For the avoidance of any doubt, subsections (2) to (4) of section 18 shall not apply to any statutory instrument made under this section.

(6) Any subsidiary agreement or similar arrangement made under the Acts repealed by subsection (1) shall continue in force until terminated in accordance with the terms and conditions of the subsidiary agreement or similar arrangement

(7) All licenses, permits and other permissions granted or issued under any legislation amended by this Statute shall remain in force and have effect for the length of time for which they were issued under any amended legislation except that the Authority may require any person or organization who or which has such a license, permit or other permission as is referred to in subsection (6) to apply to it either for a renewal of that license, permit or permission before the end of the period for which it was granted under the repealed or amended legislation or for a license, permit, wildlife use right or other permission under this Statute before the end of the period for which that license, permit or other permission was granted or issued under the repealed or amended legislation.

95. Anything done or made before the commencement of this Statute in relation to the management of wildlife and wildlife conservation areas, except in relation to appointments of staff, which acts would have been done or made under this Statute, shall be deemed to have been done or made under this Statute.

96. All property and assets which were vested in the Game Department or the Uganda National Parks Board of Trustees immediately before the commencement of this Statute shall vest in The Uganda Wildlife Authority subject to all interests, liabilities, charges, obligations and trusts affecting the property.

Validation.

Transfer of assets and liabilities.
